The Big Guns Shiraz 2015

The Big Guns is a tribute to my father Trevor Reschke, who was in the Australian national team for clay target shooting, and the state team over 20 times. More often than not you would find him shooting crows in this vineyard just before vintage. To this day crows still avoid it. Here's to you Trev.

This 3 acre vineyard produces tiny, intense berries, growing only 1 tonne per acre. Aged for 24 months in the finest French Oak barrels; from these, the finest barrels are selected. This year only 3 barrels made the cut, creating only 100 cases.

The Big Guns will age well until 2045.

"29yo vines, crushed and destemmed, open-fermented, 15 days on skins, matured for 24 months in new French oak. In the elite group of red wines selling for $100 or more ... The wine is deep crimson-purple, and manages to combine full-bodied weight with balance, length and a supple, black fruit mouthfeel." James Halliday, 2018
