

KOONARA

COONAWARRA

Angel's Peak Coonawarra Shiraz 2013

100% Coonawarra

When wine is aged in fine oak barrels, a portion of it evaporates - winemakers call this the 'Angel's Share'. It was on this sentiment the Koonara angel was born. The name 'Angels Peak' is a tongue-in-cheek reference to the lack of 'peaks' in the very flat Coonawarra.

Tasting notes

No residual sugar, below organic levels of sulphur, 18 month in 100% French Oak Barrels (20% new). 2013 was an exceptional year, and it has seen this wine integrated to a seamless mint dark chocolate and coffee notes over silky mulberries and molasses.

Winemakers comments

Lift this bottle to the light and try to see through the neck. The density of colour shows the quality of the grapes that went into this wine. Since flavour and deep colour in Shiraz comes from the skin, we grow our grapes smaller, about the size of a pea. Drink now until 2023.
